Law Seminar

College of Law at University of Dubai invites you to attend a law seminar about Arbitral Awards

Presented by: Mr. Victor Leginsky
Thursday, 15th March, 2018 at 6:30 PM

University of Dubai, BC 102 Case Room

Attendees will get Certificates of Attendance

About the Seminar

The seminar is designed to complement the studies of LLM students. Non-LLM students, legal practitioners, and businesses who are interested in understanding legal aspects relating to arbitral awards are all welcome. Arbitration law is now a key method for resolving disputes which undoubtedly arbitrators, lawyers and international businesses need to familiarize themselves with and develop special expertise on. The seminar will expose the attendees to basic principles of arbitral award challenge, recognition and enforcement.

Profile

Victor Leginsky is a Chartered Arbitrator and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. He is certified as a mediator through the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (London) [CEDR] and works frequently in respect of mediation with the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (London) [RICS]. He holds a JD (Juris Doctor) degree and a B.Ed. (Bachelor of Education), both from Canada. He has served as Arbitrator in over 80 cases, conducting both institutional and ad hoc arbitration. He confines his practice to that of a neutral (arbitrator / mediator), largely in construction and energy-related disputes. He is currently MENA Chapter Director of the Association of International Petroleum Negotiators (AIPN).

Victor is resident and has been working in the Middle East for 11 years. He is Course Director for the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CI Arb) and teaches Award Writing. He lectures frequently on dispute resolution in construction, oil and gas and general international business.
